Woodhurst Online

The village website has lots of information about the village and can be found at www.woodhurst-cambs.com. There is also a facebook group (facebook.com/groups/woodhurst) for the village and announcements are also made on twitter (@woodhurstcambs). The Parish Council and Village Hall also have their own Facebook Page (@woodhurstparishcouncil / @woodhurstvillagehall respectively)

Village Hall

The Village Hall is in St John's Close and is run by a Management Committee. Events held in the hall include Quiz Nights, Pub Nights and is opened for a variety of other occasions. It is also used as the local polling station.

The hall may be hired for private functions such as birthday parties etc. Details of charges may be obtained from the Lettings Officer Simon West (823803).

Further details can be found on the village website.

Waste Collection and Disposal

It is prudent to put your dustbins out very early, or preferably overnight. The blue bin is collected every other Thursday and the grey and green bins on alternate Wednesdays. The blue bin is for recyclables including bottles, the green for garden rubbish and the grey for household. The village website tells you which bin should be put out. When there is a Bank holiday the day may change.

There is a Recycling Centre at Bluntisham Heath; straight across at Woodhurst Crossroads and it is up the road to your right. You can dump garden rubbish, bulky items etc. Household waste can also be deposited here, but must be in black bags.

Post Office

The nearest Post Offices are at Warboys or Somersham. The collection from the village postbox is at 4.15 pm every weekday and 10.45 Saturday. There is a late collection at the letter office in St Peter's Road Huntingdon

Newspapers

The only daily paper which is delivered is the Cambridge Evening News. If you want it delivered please call 08444 068 744 or email homedelivery@localworld.co.uk

Milk

Dairy Crest delivers milk to the village three days a week on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday

Buses

The Number 22 bus operated by Dews Coaches goes into St Ives twice a day (M-F) leaving at 10:01 and 12:01, returning at 11:00 and 13:00. The buses leave from opposite the bus shelter. There is also a Saturday service leaving at 10:00 and 13:00 which takes an hour into St Ives.

The Guided busway service runs a regular service between St Ives and Cambridge.

Mobile library

A mobile library visits the village on the first Wednesday of each month from 10.40am to 11.05am. It stops opposite the 'Old Post Office'.

Newsletter

The Village newsletter "Woodhurst News" is produced on an occasional basis throughout the year.

Police

We are in the Ramsey area for community policing. The area sergeant is Andrew Street and there are a number of PCSOs that cover the area, details are available on www.cambs.police.uk. To contact Cambridgeshire Police in non-emergency situations, dial 101.

Schools

Woodhurst is in the catchment area for Warboys Primary School and the Ramsey Secondary schools, and transport is provided from the village to these schools. There is also transport to St Ivo comprehensive in St Ives. However many children from the village go to a variety of schools in Cambridge, Ely, Huntingdon, Bluntisham, Somersham and St Ives.

Doctors/Dentist

Most villagers are registered with doctors/dentists in Warboys, Somersham or St Ives.

Footpaths

There are six footpaths in and around the village. There is a map showing their whereabouts on the Parish Council notice board. The Parish Council is in the Parish Paths Partnership scheme with the County Council. This helps to maintain the paths with the help of the farmers who own the land. The Parish Councillor with responsibility for the paths is Neil Farbon.
